

Langtang Gosaikunda Trek - 17 Days

Langtang Gosaikunda Trek is a journey of beautiful landscape, lush green forest, pristine and serene lakes, snow clad mountains, quaint villages and nature and wildlife in the Langtang region of Nepal. Langtang is home to the Langtang National Park which has the presence of many unique faunas and floras. In this trek, we will walk through many ethnic settlements and villages, forests of bamboo and rhododendrons and also may get a chance to see the popular Red Panda, snow leopard, musk deer of this region and other wild animals inside the park. Langtang Valley lays close to the Tibetan boarder so the culture and looks of the village reflects similar to Tibet.

The trek starts with a drive from Kathmandu to Syabru Besi. Syabru Besi is the starting village of our trek which is a village of Tamang community located on the banks of Bhote Koshi River. As you trek forward to Langtang, you will reach Kyanjin Gumpa, a Sherpa Village and a cheese factory which are the popular places in the region. Gosaikunda Lake is a place of great importance to both Hindus and Buddhists as it is a holy place and a pilgrim and is connected to Lord Shiva.
